THE NARRAGANSETT VERDICT.

Capta. Young and Nye Censured, and Young's

License Hevoked. WASHINGTON, Sept. 24 .- The report of fessrs. Beckwith and Hovey, who investigated forwarded to Gen. Dumont. They find, after careful review of all testimony and circumstances of the collision, that George F. Fve. ster of the Stonington, did, or through his pilot, alter her course for the Narragansett ithout giving the proper signals, as required; that he failed to stop his steamer without properly locating the Narragansett or until proper tood, as required. Upon sighting the Narraett, through carelessness or forgetfulness. the signal was given to start the steamer which signal was given to start the steamer which ised the collision. Upon his own admission re was found in Capt. Nye a disposition to ally disregard the law as far as its relates to conveyance and transportation of a greater mber of passengers than allowed by law, and consequence thereof he is liable to the peny prescribed by section 4.413 for the volation pillot rules, and his license as master and piwould be revoked had it not already expired limitation.

lot would be revoked had it not already expired by limitation.

The inspectors find that Capt. Young master of the Narragansett, proceeded upon his trip without the engineer's department of his steamer in charge of a chief engineer, as required by law; that, while claiming to be in charge of the whole of his steamer and responsible for her navigation, upon sighting the Bonington, and after the signal had been given to slow and stop, through careleseness or excitement the signals were given to go shead, thereby forcing his steamer across the track of the Stonington, and also contributing to the collision of the two steamers. Capt. Young is also charged with poor judgment in leaving his steamer in a lifeboat with his pilot so soon after the collision, with so many passengers remaining on board, and in consequence of this and other violations his license as master and pilot of steam vessels is revoked. The steamiont company is censured for not providing the Narragansett with a complement of licensed engineers and the number of watchmen required by law.

the Prospect Hill school for girls at Greenfield, Mass.

A subscription started to raise $50,000 for the Meadville Divinity School had $10,000 from one man. The societies of Dr. Bellows of New York, E. E. Hale and James Freeman Clarke of Boston and Henry Powers of Manchester, N. H., gave $5,000 each. The $10,000 asked by the church at Ann Arbor was parily subscribed.

The Unitarian women's meeting organization was perfected under the name of the Women's Unitarian Conference, with Mrs. Abbie May of Boston as President.

After considerable discussion, during which the claims of the freedmen's school at Hampton and the enterprise at Ann Arbor were presented, it was resolved that $500 be given toward a library at Ann Arbor.

COLLISION ON A TRESTLE.

Both Locomotives and Two Postal Cars Going Down Forty Feet.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 24 .- A west bound dalia road, came in collision with an east bound freight train on a treatle 40 feet high over Clear Creek, nine miles west of Terre Haute, at 4:20 this morning. Both locomotives went down with a terrible crash, carrying with them Engineer Oscar Rankin and Fireman Wm. Saunders of the passenger train, killing them instantly. Engineer Jas. Watson and his fireman of the freight train jumped as soon as they saw the passenger train, and escaped with slight injuries. Two postal cars. thrown from the trestle, were smashed to splinters, but of the eight men in them only one. A. W. Dillahaut of Indianapolis was hurt, he having a leg broken and being otherwise injured. The other cars of the passenger train remained on the track, and none of the passengers were hurt. Engineer Watson of the freight train had an arm broken, and Lyman Booth, a brakeman, sustained a sompound fracture. Eight freight cars laden with wheat were smashed, and the grain scattered about. A wrecking train was sent from Terre Haute this morning to the scene of the disaster with physicians. The dead and wounded were taken to Terre Haute. neer Oscar Rankin and Fireman Wm. Saunders

THE SOUTH AMERICAN WAR.

Preparations for the Defence of Lima-Chiltans Preparing to Attack the City. PANAMA, Sept. 16 .- Advices from Lima to Aug. 28 have been received. The Peruvians are actively engaged in drilling and organizing their army for the protection of Lima, and in fortifying the city. Even the Chinese are joining in the universal enthusiasm, and the nucleus of a Celestial Guard has already been formed of sixty of the richest Chinamen in the capital, and a corps of some 600 men of the best of Chinese society is offered. The exodus from Lima continues, and in a short time an Ameriplace. The men-of-war of different nationalities are actively employed in carrying the refu can or an Engissiman will not be seen in such place. The men-of-war of different nationalities are actively employed in carrying the refugees to Chimbote, whence they take the steamers for their destination. Provisions and supplies of all kinds are still reported plentiful in Lima, and cheap, if the price is considered in coin. Beef sells for 7 cents per pound.

The mission of Mr. Christianey, American Minister to Peru, to the South, turns out now not to be one of peace, but for the purpose of presenting certain claims to Chill for damage caused to American property during the war. So even this faint hope of peace is blighted.

The Chilians are actively engaged in recruiting an army of sufficient force to undertake the march on Lima, and are getting ready vossels for the transportation of the force. This latter is the most difficult part of the business. The Chilian programme, as now announced, is that while preparing the great army for Lima, which will require some months, a part of the force will be employed in devastating the northern provinces of Peru, and in destroying the magnificent sugar estates to be found in the rich valleys there. As a part of this programme, the Chilian squadron is to be divided into two divisions, under the command of Capts, Lynch and Latosse. That under Lynch will assist the northern invaders, while the other will remain at Caliao and aid and protect the formation in that neighborhood of the army required to attack Lima.

The Chilian Congress has passed a bill authorizing the Government to issue paper money to the extent of $12,900,000 to carry out he war. This money will be received by the Government at specified offices, on deposit, drawing interest at the rate of $10,000 corry of the transment at the rate of $10,000 corry of the war. The Star and Herald of yesterilay says: "A gentleman who arrived by the Pizarro informs us that a tolegram from Lima was received advices from Panama stating that 2,500 Chilians occupied Chimbote, on the north of Lima, on the lift of the process an

Michael Kennedy, a venerable farmer of Providence, R. I., was found by Policeman Quigley sitting on the sidewalk at Second avenue and Sixty-ninth street, at 10 o'clock yester-day morning. He was drunk and was taken to the East Fifty-ninth street police station. He was there searched and $201.25 was found in his vest pockets. The money was taken charge of by the Sergeant, and a receipt for it was put in Kennedy's pocket. He did not know where he had slept the previous night. In the afterhe had slept the provious night. In the afternoon he was sober enough to be taken to the Yorkville Police Court. He admitted that he had been drunk and was fined $2. Justice Otterhourg asked if Kennedy had any money, Quigley replied that he had $261.25 at the station, but that Sergeant Smith would not give it up, as Kennedy had refused to give a receipt in roturn. Kennedy was asked why he had ratused the receipt, and he replied that he had had $380 taken from him when he was arrested.
Justice Otterbourg reproved Quigley for not bringing the money to court, and directed him to get the imoney. Quigley went to the station and returned, saying that Capt. Gunner refused to give up the money without a receipt. A subpiona was issued for Capt. Gunner, and he came to court. He said it was a police rule that if a prisoner refused to give a receipt when property was returned to him, the property was to be sent to the Property Clerk within twentyfour hours. He had already sent Kennedy's money there. Justice Otterbourg replied that only six hours had passed since the arrest, and he thought the Captain's action very hasty.
Kennedy's pockets were searched, and a receipt for $201.25 was found. Kennedy said he came from Providence four days ago, with $400. He was certain he had only spent $40. He was sensible when arrested, and able to care for himself, but thought it better to go with the police.
The fine was remitted, and Kennedy was discharged. noon he was sober enough to be taken to the

FASTER LIVINGSTON SUED.

Charles Livingston, the young man who recently started to fast forty-two days in Brookiyn, but was stopped at the end of the ninth day by the news of the attempted suiside of his reputed wife, who had tried various other ways to break up the fast, was yesterday served with lute divorce by Lillian Moorcroft, the daughter of Hans Andersen, a provision dealer of 93 Hall street, Brooklyn. The complainant claims that the faster's name is Walter B. Moorcroft, and that Charles Livingston is only an alias. They were married, she says, several years ago, when she was 16 years old. As she is still under age, the suit for divorce is brought by her father as her guardian, and the woman who passed as his wife during the fast, but whose name is alleged to be Hattie Adams, is inculpated in the complaint. This woman was known as Mme. Waldron, when, as a pedestrienne, she walked against May Marshali in the Brooklyn Rink, near Dr. Justin D. Fulton's Temple. lute divorce by Lillian Moorcroft, the daughter Temple.

Livingston, on being served with the complaint, admitted that he was the husband of Lillian Moorcroft, but he says that he was entired away from her by Hattie Adams. He has passed under the names of Walter Moore and Walter B. Morgan. His identity was discovered by Mr. Andersen, his father-in-law, who visited Willoughby Hall out of curiosity to see the man who thought that he could beat Dr. Tanner.

MISTAKING HIS MAN.

A Shoemaker who was Not to be Frightened Because he had Done his Duty.

Robert Fawcett, a shoemaker, of 121 Tillary street, who identified a pair of shoes found in a church yard near Mr. Tigney's house as the shoes that he had made for Weich a short time before the assault. On Thursday evening Jas. Farrell, alias "Brush," one of Walsh's comrades, met Mr. Fawcett in front of his shop and began to abuse him for having sent Waish to prison. He threatened to take his revenge upon Fawcett.

The shoemaker told Farrell to move on, but he refused, and, after some further words, he struck the shoemaker in the breast. In an instant Farrell was lying at full length upon the sidewalk, and Mr. Fawcett was drawing his arm back ready for another blow if necessary. Farrell, however, ran off. He was captured by Sergeant Eason, in the back yard of a house close by. He had a black syst when he was taken before Justice Waish yesterday. The Justice sentenced him to four months' imprisonment in the Kings County Penitentiary.
